Job Title: Medical Lead, Health in Justice
Accountable to: National Medical Lead, Health in Justice
Location: Aligned to Regional structure with National responsibility
(Remotely based with travel across our locations)

This is a full-time role with a salary up to £145k plus benefits.

Practice Plus Group's mission is Access to Excellence. Our core values are;

- we treat patients and each other as we would like to be treated
- we act with integrity
- we embrace diversity
- we strive to do things better together

Patients can only access excellence if we commit to living our values in everything we do when we're at work.

Practice Plus Group (PPG), previously known as Care UK, is the leading provider of outsourced healthcare on behalf of the NHS delivering against more than seventy discrete contracts across the UK. NHS England are currently responsible for providing primary care into circa 118 prisons / IRCs across England. Practice Plus Group is the leading healthcare provider into the prison sector; with a circa 50% market share.

Practice Plus Group, operating under a 'prime provider model' are contracted for the broad provision of the following offerings; primary care, substance misuse, mental health (primary and secondary), dental, ophthalmic (eye care), physio and psychiatric services. They will provide all or almost all of these services in-house, but on occasion will partner with specific sub-contractors to fulfil the delivery of a contract and ensure a high quality of care for all in need.

The Health in Justice service line is led by the Service Director supported by the senior leadership team including National Medical Director, Director of Nursing & Quality, Chief Pharmacist, Head of HR, Head of Finance and three Regional Directors.

The Opportunity

For the right individual, this presents an opportunity to be part of our clinical leadership team within a niche sector for a forward thinking and growing service line. Over the last eight years

PPGs Health in Justice service line has grown from a portfolio of 12 prisons to our current c.60 services. With a strong business development pipeline over the next 12 – 24 months, our future potential growth could also offer further development opportunities for the right individual. PPG is recognised as a leading outsourced NHS provider within the UK and wants to be known as providing 'best in class' patient care within the criminal justice sector.

As a member of the Leadership Team, the Medical Lead will work with the Health in Justice (HiJ) Leadership Team to provide innovative, energetic, patient focused care. The role requires an understanding of the aspirations for secure environments and the non-custodial sector and find positive solutions for the challenges being faced in both healthcare and the wider environment. A good grasp of the sector dynamics at both a National and Regional level is required, as well as an understanding of the strategic direction for HiJ delivery. This includes the statutory framework within which it operates, in particular but not restricted to, the Ministry of Justice (MoJ) and His Majesty's Prison & Probation Service (HMPPS). The role also requires an ability to navigate a complex stakeholder and sub-contractor environment.

The Medical Lead will provide medical leadership in order to ensure the consistent delivery of high quality, safe and cost-effective care for patients within the Health and Justice service line, continuously working to improve the healthcare provided to this complex patient group. The post holder will provide professional leadership to colleagues including maintaining high professional standards in behaviour and practice across all services and developing medical leadership capability.

The Medical Leads, Health in Justice, will support the national clinical team for Health in Justice, driving the implementation of our strategy to:

Provide outstanding evidence-based care to our patients, seeking out, listening to and acting on their feedback, so that care is personalised and informed by what matters to them.

Deliver non-judgemental, reflective and competent care that makes a real difference, as defined throughout our bespoke Health in Justice competency framework.

Inspire excellence by forging strong links with our partners and stakeholders and providing a service that people can trust, feel safe within, and feel proud of.

Promote best practice, clinical supervision, evidence-based care and continuous quality improvement, embedding an open and just culture of shared learning.

Share knowledge, skills and expertise to ensure safe care, building strong multi-disciplinary teams and supporting each other to do a great job.

- Support a multi-skilled, multi-disciplined and diverse workforce to work as a cohesive operational group delivering first class care to all patients.
- Provide professional and medical leadership and development, to the medical, clinical and governance workforce across Health in Justice.

- Work collaboratively and in partnership with the Service Director- Health in Justice and other colleagues with in the SLT.
- Work collaboratively and in partnership with the Director of Nursing, Chief Pharmacist and National Medical Director to provide assurance that services are safe, caring, effective, responsive and well led.
- Ensure quality, high standard quality governance throughout Health in Justice Service line, ensuring full compliance with internal and external expectations for service delivery.
- Contribute to the ongoing development and implementation of the Health in Justice Quality Assurance Framework and of the Continuous Quality Review process.
- Keep abreast of national and international changes to practice that impact on clinical governance requirements; to communicate these effectively to a variety of audiences and integrate them into Practice Plus Group's policies and practice as appropriate.
- Lead by example, demonstrating high professional standards, promoting a culture of openness and acting at all times in accordance with the GMC's Good Medical Practice.
- Support the Health and Justice service line to develop and deliver new, innovative health care offerings that provide solutions to commissioners' requirements and will support the business development team in bid development and mobilisation of new services.

1. Vision and Leadership

- Provide leadership both in their geographical and professional areas to ensure the delivery of clinical care and development and implementation of integration to achieve this.
- Develop and sustain effective, collaborative working relationships with the Health in Justice leadership team, providing strategic and medical direction on all necessary matters.
- Represent Health in Justice with external agencies including NHS England and our commissioners, other service providers, networks, patients, and other national bodies on issues relating to service delivery and development.

2. Governance

Work with the leadership teams in providing assurance about the quality of services by:

- Developing and embedding a culture of continuous quality improvement, leading on policies and procedures to create a culture of quality and safety.
- Leading on further development of clinical governance standards.
- In line with the principles of the national Patient Safety Incident Response Framework (PSIRF), ensure a robust process for managing all patient safety incidents, including deaths in custody, that supports openness, transparency and the sharing of lessons learned across the service line and more widely where appropriate.
- Supporting the management of complaints and ensuring action has been taken on the findings of investigations into clinical incidents and inquests, to prevent recurrence.
- Where required support the investigation of complaints, legal cases, accident reports and safety incidents, liaising as necessary with other colleagues and addressing any quality issues that arise from the investigation of a complaint or incident.
